Messrs. White and Rudolph will leave Washington August 30.

One of the most important subjects pefore the convention is the report of the committee of twelve which was appointed to confer with the authorities t Washington with a view to obtain-at Washington with a view to obtaining amendments to the Federal reserve act calculated to make entrance into the Federal reserve system more desirable for State banks. This report will be submitted by Uzal H. McCarter, of Newark, N. J., the chairman.

Bankera generally are also much interested in the proposed national bank section, the organization of which will be considered by prominent national bankers from all sections of the country at a special meeting to be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday, September 7. As nearly all of the national banks of the country are represented in the national bank membership of the association these bankers feel that more general co-operation would be promoted should they associate themselves in a section corresponding to the trust company and they associate themselves in a section corresponding to the trust company and State bank sections.

Though the major portion of the two days during which the convention will be formally in session—Wednesday and Thursday—will be devoted to routine work there are several addresses upon work, there are several addresses upon the program which are attracting the attention of bankers. Gould's Income $500,000. Says Attorney in Suit

NEW YORK, Aug. 21 .- That George J. Gould has an income of $500,900 a year was the statement made in the supreme court by his attorney, Robert B. Knowles, in objecting to a further stay of proceeding in the suit of George J. Gould against his brother Howard and the latter's wife, Katherine Clemmons Gould, in the suit to foreclose a tax lien on the property of Howard Gould.

Mrs. Katherine Gould is opposing the proceeding on the ground that it is an attempt to deprive her of her dower interest, but both the trial court and the appellate division have decided against her and ordered the sale of the has gone to the court of appeal She has gone to the court of appeals and wants the sale held up until the highest court acts. Her application for a stay was denied on the contention that if Mrs. Gould wins in the highest court George J. Gould will be able to pay any damage she may sustain by the sale of the property.

Detective Joins Gang And Rounds Up Burglars

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.-Letting his beard grow and posing as a fugitive from Canada, Detective Finan, of the central office, joined an alleged band of burglars three weeks ago. Today the members were all under arrest and the police believe they have broken up a gang that has stolen more than $20,000 worth of lewels and loot in the last two months.

Finan was a pal with the gang, lived with them and his every move was shadowed by a brother detective, who at one time arrested Finan for ioltering, the same as the others.

The Safest Investments

Are those that do not fluctuate during dis-turbed conditions of the money or stock mar-kets. First deed of trust notes (first mort-gages), well secured on real estate in the District of Columbia, constitute "glit-edge" investments. They do not depend upon the financial responsibility of individuals or cer-porations for their stability, and are exampt from taxaton as persenal property. We can supply such investments in amounts from $500 upward. Send for bookies "Cencerning Loans and Investments."
